HANNOVER PUBLIC LIBRARY

– essential
information

ENGLISH

THANK YOU FOR YOUR VISIT!

Welcome to the library! Hannover Public Library has

- a central library near Aegidientorplatz
- 16 local libraries in the city districts
- a mobile library.

Visitors have free access to all books and other media in the library during opening hours. You can also read newspapers and journals, use the Library Press Display (4,000 international newspapers and magazines in 50 languages), surf the internet and use the Wifi.

You can borrow the following items from our libraries:

- Books
- Audio books
- Magazines
- Music CDs
- Sheet music
- CD-ROMs
- DVDs
- Games (Wii and PC Games)
- Ebooks.

We have books for school, further and higher education, work, hobbies and leisure, entertainment and simply to enjoy. There are also books in other languages: Arabic, English, French, Kurdish, Persian, Russian and Turkish.

Children, especially, feel welcome in our libraries – they can read, browse, explore, discover things and play games. Reading is fun!

To borrow items from the library you will need a membership card. When applying for one, please bring your identity card, passport or other proof of identity along with your residence permit.

Children and young adults under 18 years of age also need the signature of their legal guardian.

The membership card is free for people who have a 'Hannover Aktiv-Pass' or receive social benefits, and for people under 20 years of age.

For everyone else, the annual fee is 24 €.

The card is valid for one year, and can be renewed.
